

DR. RIDHIMA DIKSHIT is an accomplished academic and researcher with over seven and a half years of experience in teaching and research in the field of law. She specialises in Criminal Law, Forensic Evidence, and Cyber Law, with a keen interest in bridging the gap between legal education and contemporary societal challenges. Currently serving as an Assistant Professor of the Indian Law Institute, New Delhi, she has previously held faculty positions at the National Law Institute University (NLIU), Bhopal, Jagran Lakecity University, Bhopal and briefly worked at Symbiosis Law School, Pune. She has also worked as a visiting faculty at B.U. Bhopal and Chembur Karnataka College of Law, Mumbai, Central Academy for Police Training, Bhopal Police training school, Prothrapur, Port Blair. She was also nominated as a resource person for the Bihar Institute of Public Administration and Rural Development, Gaya.

Dr. Dikshit holds a Ph.D. in Law from Devi Ahilya Vishwavidyalaya (DAVV), Indore, where her research focused on “Critical and Socio-Legal Study of Supreme Court Judgments on Forensic Evidence”. She also earned her LL.M. in Criminal Law from NLIU, Bhopal, following her LL.B. and B.Sc. (Biotechnology) from Barkatullah University, Bhopal. She has qualified for UGC-NET (2018) and MP-SET (2017) in Law. She is a lifetime member of the Indian Society of Criminology and a reviewer for reputed journals, including The Indian Police Journal and the Journal of Legal Studies. She has also served as a faculty member of the Pro-Bono Club under the Department of Justice and contributed to state-level law and policy reforms, as a member of the committee for consultations on the Repeal of Obsolete and Redundant Laws in Legislation for the government of Madhya Pradesh.

A prolific researcher, she has published in UGC Care-listed and international journals, with notable works on Forensic Evidence, Money Laundering, and Cyberterrorism. She has presented papers at prestigious national and international conferences, including the World Society of Victimology Symposium (2024) and multiple All India Criminology Conferences. Her academic engagement extends to roles as a session chair and moderator in faculty development programmes, national conferences, and training workshops for police officials and executive magistrates. She guided numerous dissertations at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels and was actively involved in NAAC accreditation, admission committees, and convocation committees. She has also been invited as a guest speaker by Prasara Bharati, Akashvani, Central University of Gujarat, and Chettinad University, among others. In addition, she has served as a judge for several moot courts, mediation, and policy competitions across leading law schools.