

DR. TANIYA MALIK is presently working as Assistant Professor (Law) at the Indian Law Institute, New Delhi. She has finished her Ph.D. (2020) on the topic 'Water Security In India: Key to India's Development', from the Faculty of Law, University of Delhi (India). She has also finished her LL.M. (2012) from Faculty of Law, University of Delhi; LL.B. (2009) from Campus Law Centre, Faculty of Law, University of Delhi. Prior to joining the Indian Law Institute, she has taught at various institutions of national repute such as Maharaja Surajmal Institute (affiliated to GGSIP University, New Delhi); Indian Institute of Management Rohtak; TERI School of Advanced Studies, New Delhi; GD Goenka University, Gurugram; Law Center I, Faculty of Law, University of Delhi, and North Cap University, Gurugram. She is UGC-NET & JRF (2012) qualified. Additionally, she has one year of industry experience as an Associate (Trademarks) at the IPR law firm Lall Lahiri & Salhotra. Dr. Malik has received an International Fellowship from the Hague Academy of International Law, The Hague, Netherlands (2012), to attend their summer course on Private International Law.

She has presented numerous papers at international and national conferences, including the 4th UK Animal Law Conference (2024) at Birmingham City University, UK; Roorkee Water Conclave (RWC) 2024 at IIT Roorkee; IUCN WCEL Oslo 3rd International Environmental Law Conference (2022) at the University of Oslo, Norway; and the 8th International Conference on Sustainability SUSCON (2021) by IIM Shillong. She has served as Research Officer for NCW Sponsored Major Research Project on "Sports as a Tool of Women Empowerment: A Study of Policies, Practices and Barriers Faced by Women in Sports in India" (2022-23). Dr. Malik has published several research articles in reputed law journals, such as the International Journal of Public Law and Policy (SCOPUS), Masaryk University Journal of Law and Technology (SCOPUS), International Journal of Human Rights and Constitutional Studies (Web of Science, ESCI), ILI Law Review (UGC CARE), and the Springer book series on Gender, Justice and Legal Feminism. Her areas of specialization include Constitutional Law, Environmental Law, Law of Torts, and Family Law.